

FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT † MARCH 6, 2016

ST. BRUNO PARISH

"While the world changes, the cross stands firm."

During the month of March, focus on this Corporal Work of Mercy:

Visit the Imprisoned

"I was in prison and you visited Me" —Matthew 25:36

How can you Visit the Imprisoned?

To view those imprisoned as a throwaway society is to forget the fact that we are all members of Christ, whether we are locked up or free. Inmates should not be forgotten or regarded as beyond hope. If we call ourselves disciples of Jesus we are asked to look at ways to be Jesus to them.

What can you do?

- Work beside Archbishop ListECKi at the Racine Correctional Institution on March 24, 9:30 a.m.
- Become a volunteer for visiting or corresponding with someone incarcerated:
Contact St. Vincent de Paul, Waukesha, for information: 262-547-2726
- Assist those coming out of Jail/Prison to find housing and employment
- Be a companion for families of someone incarcerated
- Become a partner in Restorative Justice Programs
- Be an Advocate for Prison Reform
- Provide financial support for materials to inmates such as Bibles
- Pray for those incarcerated and their families

JUBILEE
YEAR of Mercy

ASSOCIATE PASTOR'S PEN VISIT THE IMPRISONED

Beaten, betrayed, and hung from a cross, he cries out to his Father to forgive us. He cries out for my salvation and covers me in his mercy. I weep at the price paid for my eternity, humbled by his graciousness, and long to live his command: “Be merciful, just as [also] your Father is merciful” (Lk 6:36). (from a reflection by Jennifer Hubbard)

I WAS IN PRISON AND YOU VISITED ME – (MT 25:36)

As we continue in this Jubilee Year of Mercy, this month we look to the Corporal Work of Mercy “Visit the Imprisoned.” When I was in my third year in seminary I had a societal ministry that brought me to the Milwaukee County Jail every Wednesday. I don’t know what I was expecting to find, but what I discovered was a group of people who were all very human. Most of those I spoke with were trying (in their lives outside) to live within a social structure that very difficult. They were trying to help their families and got caught doing something wrong, something they wouldn’t have been doing if they were in a different environment. They were good people otherwise (at least in my humble opinion).

To view those imprisoned as a throwaway society is to forget the fact that we are all members of Christ, whether we are locked up or free. Inmates should not be forgotten or regarded as beyond hope. If we call ourselves disciples of Jesus we are asked to look at ways to be the presence of Jesus to them. (Reflection from the Archmil.org website which also offers ways to potentially live out this Corporal Work of Mercy)

We ourselves may be unable to enter into prisons, but even if we cannot fulfill this Corporal Work of Mercy in concrete manner, we still should make a serious effort to live it. This can be done by intentions in our prayer. Those in prison have usually sinned much, and they need much prayer. In many cases the salvation of their souls is in a precarious state of uncertainty. They are also often quite forgotten. Cut off from our attention, they may receive little prayers from us. They are the poorest of the poor in that sense. Perhaps we may find one day that this work of intercession was one of our most important works. (from a reflection by Fr. Donald Haggerty)

Please visit the Archmil website (<http://www.archmil.org/Our-Faith/Year-of-Mercy/ReflectingCorporalMercy.htm>) to see some of the many organizations and efforts that are around the archdiocese that minister to the imprisoned, victims, and those released. I have recently been exposed to Project Return and the Restorative Justice Programs — both of which, I feel, are great programs designed to help those involved.

"REDISCOVER JESUS"

QUESTION OF THE WEEK:

This week's readings are #23-28 and this week's question to ponder and share your thoughts is: What are you most grateful for today? Answers can be sent to marykral4@gmail.com or left with the Parish Office. (If your daily meditations don't seem to line up, please note that Sundays are not included in the 40 days of Lent.)

COMMUNITY CONVERSATION:

Re: Difficult teachings of Jesus: "Being judgemental. God is the only judge and I need to remember we are all children of God. Judging tends to hurt and become a negative way of living."
"..loving everyone: the less fortunate, the marginalized, everyone we encounter. We need to remember we are all children of God."
"Love your enemies. This is a teaching that I constantly struggle with. I feel that I am doing better in accepting others who have different thoughts and ideas than that of my own. But to truly love someone who has committed a heinous crime is a difficult pill for me to swallow especially if that crime was committed against my own family. I admire the faith and strength of others who have been severely threatened and have shown forgiveness and love for their enemy." "Do not judge. I would hate to count how many times I judge in 24 hours. The fact that I am aware of my fault has helped me address this weakness of mine. I feel that I am making positive advancements in my battle against judging others. My prayers will continue."

Re: How is God inviting you to become more generous? "I usually think of generous in terms of money or possessions. But maybe God wants me to be more generous in my time, my forgiveness, my patience, my caring for others." "I realized I need to be more generous when I am responding to others: a concise response might provide the answer, but spending a few more moments with the other person often provides blessings for both of us."

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

In today's Gospel Jesus is quite clear in His message: "bear fruit or be cut down". This Lent we are called to cultivate and fertilize our spiritual lives through prayer, fasting and almsgiving.

Is there a family you know who needs assistance? Call SVdP so we can help.

WOMEN OF CHRIST

Women of Christ invites your family to a talk given by Bishop Oliver Dashe Doeme of Nigeria. While praying the rosary in his chapel, Jesus appeared to Bishop Doeme and offered him a sword. When the bishop reached for it, the sword became a rosary. Please come to hear his amazing story at 2:30 p.m. on Sunday, March 13, at St. Margaret Mary Parish (in the church), 3970 92nd St, Milwaukee, WI. (Capitol Dr. & 92nd St.). Go to www.womenofchrist.net for more information. With questions, email womenofchrist@gmail.com or call 262-384-8414. Admission is free. Donations gratefully accepted.

QUIET TIME - WOMEN'S RETREAT

Do you need some silent time away with our Lord? Join other women of St. Paul and St. Bruno at a silent preached retreat at the Redemptorist Retreat Center March 18-20. The title of the retreat is "Mary and Gospel Joy." Mary is our "perpetual help", always ready to pick us up in an embrace; with Mary we become missionaries of tenderness and care. More information is at www.redemptoristretreat.org or contact Mary Kral at the Parish Office. We have one already registered – our goal is seven women.
