- Catch-up on Faith Formation Strategic Planning
 - Large group planning with both staffs and councils have taken place
 - Smaller groups have been meeting – formation being one of the groups – to specifically look at what we can be doing
 - Priority that faith formation collaborate
 - Benefits from collaboration – provide more opportunities
 - General benefits:
 - More adult opportunities
 - Children in both the schools and separate parishes get to know each other
- Plan for the 2015-2016 year
 - Amy Golden – K-8th and Family Program at St. Bruno's
 - Sarah Daszczuk – High school at both Ss. Bruno and Paul
 - By and large the programs will not be changing that much at St. Bruno's (there are more classes this year, but that is the extent of the changes) and will not be changing at all at St. Paul's
 - Fr. Chuck, Amy, and Karen will be helping with opening doors and what not on the days Sarah will be at the other parish
 - Mary Kral – Adult at both Ss. Bruno and Paul (20hrs/week)
 - Karen Farrell – Pre-k-8th and Family Program
- Reactions?

 - Overall seen as a positive
