WHO ARE OUR DEACONS AND DEACON CANDIDATES?

The Book of the Acts of the Apostles talks about the creation of the ministry of (seven) Deacons. Until almost the time of the Middle Ages, the Order of Permanent Diaconate was a living part of the Church. However, for various reasons, the Order of Permanent Deacon died. The “Transitional Diaconate” remained, even up until today. This diaconal ordination was and is a stepping stone to Priesthood. Finally, in 1964, Vatican Council II in the Constitution on the Church restored the Order of Permanent Deacon to the hierarchy of the Church (Bishop, Priest & Deacon). Their role is distinct from the Bishop and Priest, as it also is distinct from the lay person. Permanent Deacons are ordained clerics in the Church. They are not mini-priests. Nor are they “upgraded” or “enriched” laymen. They are especially Ministers of the Word of God in preaching and teaching, Ministers within Liturgy and Ministers of Social and Charitable Works. Since most Permanent Deacons are married and have secular occupations within which they witness Christ, it is to be understood that their wife and family come first, their occupation comes second and diaconal ministry comes third. In each case of a married man becoming a Permanent Deacon, his wife must support the step her husband is taking to ordination or it doesn't happen. She is an integral part of his ministry and service, morally and spiritually supporting him.

At St. Bruno Parish, Deacon Tom Filipiak (Anna Marie) will continue to serve in Liturgy and preaching the Word, along with offering Eucharistic prayer services to nursing home residents. Deacon Gordon Snyder (Cheryl) was recently reassigned by the Archbishop to serve as a Deacon at both St. Bruno and St. Paul. The details of his Covenant of Service will be fashioned within the next few months. Deacon Candidate John Mezydlo (Rita) will be ordained a Permanent Deacon on September 6, 2014. His assignment at that time by the Archbishop will be to do service at both St. Paul's and St. Bruno's. That will include preaching, baptizing, witnessing marriages, leading shut-in Communion Services & helping with preparation of engaged couples. Deacon Candidate Joseph Senglaub (Elizabeth) has just completed his first year of studies for the diaconate and is looking forward to his next three years of study, preparation and growth. Last, but not least, is Deacon Mauricio Fernandez. He is a Transitional Deacon who will be ordained a Priest for the Archdiocese of Milwaukee next May. He too, has been assigned to service of the people of both St. Paul and St. Bruno Parishes.

If anyone wants to consider looking into the ministry of the Diaconate, please call me, Fr. Ralph (262-227-2722).

THE SEASON OF RCIA IS COMING SOON!

RCIA stands for RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS. This season of RCIA is a time for learning about the Catholic Faith, along with fellowship with those who are also on the faith journey. Many people have questions about the Catholic faith. Some of them come from other faith traditions and others come with no affiliation to a religious group. But all of them come because they want to learn about this wonderful worldwide Catholic Faith. Classes begin in the month of October. I usually schedule two classes per month and try to pick a day and time that works best for all those concerned. If you or anyone else that you know would like to become “Catholic”, please contact me, Karen Warnes. My cell phone number is 414-807-8453, or email me at kwarnes@wi.rr.com.

IGNITE. RENEW. ENERGIZE.

ARCHBISHOP CALLS FOR A "NEW PENTECOST" AT 2014 SYNOD

More than 400 Catholics gathered at the recent Archdiocesan Synod where Archbishop ListECKI said to the delegates present, "We, as the Archdiocese, gather to form and fashion our priorities to make sure that our hearts are open to the movement of the Spirit, in the lives of our parishes, to make sure the voice of our loving God is heard by all."

The event included Mass, reflections by Archbishop ListECKI, Bishop HyING and Bishop SklBA, along with lively music, videos, and importantly, small group discussion and discernment on eight key mission areas of the Church within three key pastoral categories of CATHOLIC IDENTITY, EVANGELIZATION and STEWARDSHIP. The mission areas that were discussed and discerned included: Catholic Social Teaching, Cultural Diversity, Evangelization, Formation, Leadership, Liturgy, Marriage & Family, and Stewardship. Each small group discussion was concluded with a large-group assembly where the delegates voted on the top priorities within those respective areas. In the closing Synod Mass, Archbishop ListECKI concluded with the words, "Ignite, Renew and Energize." He explained these by proclaiming,

"We are asked to help take the sense of the new Pentecost into the world – to be ignited by the Spirit; to be renewed in our own personal spiritual life; and to energize our own communities...to overcome any fear of proclaiming the Gospel to a world that sorely needs it."

Over the next few weeks, you will see information on each of the eight key mission areas, and the Synod voting results in these areas. On September 14, Archbishop ListECKI will issue a Synodal Declaration, which will include the priorities set for the Archdiocese for the next 10-15 years. The information from the Synod will assist Archbishop ListECKI in his discernment process in creating this Declaration.
