

THE COMMEMORATION OF ALL THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED (ALL SOULS)
† NOVEMBER 2, 2014

ST. BRUNO PARISH

"While the world changes, the cross stands firm."

Mass of Remembrance
November 3, 2014

Precious in the sight of the LORD is the death of His faithful ones.

— Psalm 116:15

PASTOR'S PEN

JOSEPH SENLAUB

PERMANENT DEACON CANDIDATE

As you may remember, there are three Deacons serving both St. Paul and St. Bruno Parishes. Again, these men are: Transitional Deacon Mauricio Fernandez, and Permanent Deacons Gordon Snyder and recently-ordained, John C. Mezydlo.

Of course, we also have Deacon Tom Filipiak serving our St. Bruno Community. I haven't done much to introduce our Permanent Deacon Candidate, Joseph Senlaub, who is doing service work in both parishes. Joe has presently completed two of the four years required for Diaconal Formation. Last February, Joe was installed into the Office of "Ministry of Reader" of God's Word. Even though a Reader/Lector at Mass also proclaims the Word of God, that person's ministry is considered 'temporary'. Someone formally installed by the Bishop into the Office of Reader (as Joe was) is considered 'permanently' bound to that Office. Likewise, this past weekend, October 25, Joseph was installed by Bishop Sklba into the permanent "Ministry of Acolyte"; as a stepping stone to his diaconate. In this Office of Acolyte, he is not an altar server, although he oversees and serves all things relating to the altar and the various ministers around or at the altar, along with setting up the liturgical books.

The role of the Acolyte is to light the sanctuary candles; carry the Cross in procession; assist the priest at his chair by preparing and holding the Roman Missal; prepare the altar at the Offertory, along with preparing the chalice and cups with wine and some water if there is no deacon; assist the deacon at the Mass with his responsibilities if needed; instruct the altar servers in their roles; and prepare the ciboria and distribute communion, especially the cup. As the most appropriate person next to the priest, he purifies the chalice and cups after Communion or after Mass. He may also lead a liturgical service, which could include a Scripture reading and the distribution of communion when a priest or deacon isn't available. Normally, the garb worn by the Acolyte is a cassock and surplice.

Please keep Joe in your prayers as he continues his diaconal studies and gives service to our two parishes. Blessings, Joe!

~Fr. Ralph

PRAYER MINISTRY STARTING AT ST. BRUNO

We have a new Prayer Ministry at St. Bruno. Several parishioners have been trained to provide one-on-one prayer with parishioners who have special intentions. At the end of Mass, Prayer Ministers will make an announcement to let the congregation know that they are available to pray with anyone who has a need. This is a personal prayer time, and prayer intentions will be kept confidential. If you are interested in becoming a Prayer Minister or have questions, please contact Amy Golden at 262-402-8229, or Karen Warnes at 414-807-8453.

MINISTRY OF READER

What a privilege to proclaim the Word of God at Mass. Our Readers are well-trained and do a great service to God's people by their proclamation, planting the words of Scripture into the hearts of God's people. But we are always calling more and more people into active ministry for the Church. Please consider being a Reader at our weekend Masses. Sign-up for this particular Ministry will be on two weekends: Nov. 8/9 and Nov. 15/16. All Readers receive a blessing and a workbook at the start of the Liturgical year (The First Sunday of Advent). Dates for Formation/Training sessions will be announced for all Readers, especially any New Readers to the Ministry.

MASS OF REMEMBRANCE † NOV. 3

Our annual MASS OF REMEMBRANCE will be held this Monday, Nov. 3, at 7:00 p.m. This liturgy is for anyone who has experienced the death of a loved one. Please join us for this special time of worship and loving remembrance.

Altarcito is the Spanish word meaning little altar. This type of shrine is customary in Hispanic homes and serves as a place for family prayer. It usually has statues or pictures of Jesus and saints as well as photographs of deceased family members. Deacon Mauricio has again put together the Altarcito as a way to honor our deceased loved ones. Thank you, Mauricio!
