PASTOR'S PEN

ADVENT SEASON IS HERE! COME, LORD JESUS!

Our new Church Year begins next weekend, November 29/30, with the First Sunday of Advent! Each year I try to put into words for myself what Advent is all about. After forty-four years as a priest I still spiritually wrestle with the following understandings of Advent, trying to grasp the wonder of Jesus' comings!

Advent is the beginning of the new Church Year. It is so important that during this Advent time we reflect on the three "comings" of the Lord Jesus. Two of Christ's comings set up the third.

The first coming is Jesus, the Son of God, becoming a human being (the Incarnation) when he was born in Bethlehem. We look back two thousand years. He went on to die and rise for us and not only taught us the deeper meaning of our lives, but gifted us and graced us to be redeemed. We absolutely need that first coming. Be glad and rejoice!

Then there is the second coming of Christ at the end of time. We look forward! That is when we will see the glorified Christ face to face and be enfolded in His arms forever in peace, joy and love. At that time we hopefully will be totally and perfectly one "in Christ." Be glad and rejoice!

Both the looking back and the looking forward give us a meaningful context for our present life here on earth. Once Jesus set up His coming in flesh and then also promises a special end, we realize the "in between," our lives today in a broken and incomplete world, no longer physically with Jesus in Bethlehem and not yet perfectly with Christ in His second coming. But we are not abandoned or left out there hanging. On the contrary Jesus continues to be present with us in and through His Spirit, the Church community, the signs and symbols of the Sacraments and His Word. In the third coming of Christ in this present time of transition for us, He is working at molding us into Himself. For us on earth this is the critical time that we live our daily lives growing in the Lord and the Lord in us, through His Spirit, His Church, His Word and His Sacraments. Be glad and rejoice!

~Fr. Ralph

I will give thanks to the Lord with my whole heart; I will tell of all Your wonderful deeds.

—Psalm 9:1

THANKSGIVING INSIGHT

Too often I catch myself complaining about the tough breaks and sufferings I've experienced in life, past and present. At this time of Thanksgiving however, I am again reminded of a point of wisdom and insight that spiritual writers and psychologists have shared about suffering and gratitude. I need to reflect on it again for myself. I invite you to reflect on it with me. On the surface it sounds naïve or even stupid. This is the insight — be sincerely grateful and thankful for struggles, sufferings, problematic people and other crosses in our life. That gratitude takes those things and transforms them. For example, by giving thanks and expressing sincere and heartfelt gratitude for problems in our life changes them into experiences of challenge and opportunity. Being grateful for failures transforms them into forms of success. Express thanks for mistakes. It makes them into important events of learning and growing, helping us to be wiser and more prepared. Negative energy can and will become positive energy through gratitude. Thankfulness for darkness will help us see and appreciate the light. Somehow gratitude and thankfulness break open the bigger picture of what is really happening in our life. Gratitude has been described as "unlocking" life. The reality is that our life is full of blessings, not just with things that are obviously positive like God's presence, our personal talents, our senses, the Church, foods, our beloved family, enjoyments, leisure, nature, our faith, feasts, beauty, companionship of friends, times of love felt or given, freedom, etc., etc. If we can thank God also for our crosses we will experience something very uplifting and meaningful in our life, something transforming. Happy Thanksgiving! Thank you for the blessing you are to me and Fr. Chuck!

~Fr. Ralph

THANKSGIVING FOOD DRIVE

St. Bruno Parish is participating in a Thanksgiving Food Drive supporting The Kettle Moraine Food Pantry. We'll be handing out grocery bags with a list of needed items this weekend. Monetary donations are also welcome. Please make checks payable to St. Bruno Parish and write Kettle Moraine Food Pantry on the memo line. Your donations will help individuals and families right here in our area who are in financial need. Please bring your food donations to the church by Thanksgiving Day. We'll also need help taking the food donations to the Food Pantry on Friday, Nov. 28. Please be at the church at 8:30 a.m. Anyone who can stay and help sort would be appreciated. If you need Service Hours, here is an excellent opportunity. Any questions, please call Sue James at 262-646-3518.

THE GIVING TREE

From November 29 – December 14, the Human Concerns Committee will be collecting gifts for the needy in our area. Look for a Christmas tree in our Gathering Place. Choose an ornament with a list of needs – then provide a gift by Dec. 14. Please put gift cards in the collection basket at Mass or in the box on the SCRIP table and place other unwrapped items in a large decorated box by the tree.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR GENEROSITY.

ADVENT SALE

The Christian Formation Committee has Advent and Christmas items available for purchase in the Gathering Place. These items include Advent candles, wreaths, and calendars. Some items are limited, so shop early for the best selections. (Advent begins November 30.)

“WHO SAYS IT HAS TO BE CASH?”

GIFT OF STOCK: This is an easy and beneficial way to give a gift to the church. By giving a gift of stock, your gross income is not affected. It's a good idea to consult your financial advisor for the most up-to-date tax advantages.

MATCHING GIFTS: Many companies offer a Corporate Matching Gift Program. If you would like details on this option of giving, please call Leann in the Parish Office at 262-965-2332.

MUSIC MINISTRY

“A HEAVENLY HOMECOMING”

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 21, 2:00 P.M.

This year's Lessons & Carols devotional concert will feature alumni of the concert who are coming home from college. Andy Gladbach, pianist and film composer at Pepperdine University in Malibu, will be featured as a soloist. David Wittmann, a freshman at St. Norbert's in DePere, will be the primary keyboard accompanist for HANDEL'S MESSIAH with Choir and Orchestra. Torrin Hallett, a composition student at Oberlin Conservatory near Cleveland, will write another premiere for instruments. Other string players will also be coming home from college to join the Orchestra and Choir. Please consider joining us or attending the concert, as you come home to Christ, your family and your Parish community to celebrate the birth of our Lord Jesus! In addition, a small Youth Choir is organizing for carols for both the Lessons & Carols concert and for Christmas. Ability to read basic music is needed. See Mr. Gould if interested in trying out.

THANK YOU CANTORS!

Many thanks to our recent student Cantors. Samantha Meyer and Lindsay Sindorf led the congregation in song at the All Saints School Mass on October 29. Training is available for any other Youth Cantors interested in this Music Ministry. See Mark Gould for more information.

MAKE SOMEONE HAPPY

For Christmas each year, our St. Vincent de Paul (SVDP) Society sponsors the family of an incarcerated parent. We also sponsor families in need of Christmas gifts, whom we have made home visits to throughout the year. If you would like to sponsor a family, please contact Sue James at 262-646-3518. We need the gifts by Dec. 11. God Bless! ~SVDP

Today, as we celebrate Christ The King, we hear Jesus say: "...whatever you did for one of the least brothers and sisters of Mine, you did for Me."

Knowing that we find the Face of Christ in the poor, this month, through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul was able to serve many families, providing money for food, utility and rent bills, etc. Thank You!

EUCCHARISTIC SPIRITUALITY RETREAT

Dec. 5-7 • Redemptorist Retreat Center

This year's theme is "Emmanuel: God Is With Us".

The retreat will be presented by Fr. Jim White, C.Ss.R.

The Eucharistic Retreat is a beautiful way to begin Advent. Luke's Genealogy of Jesus Christ is traced step-by-step back to Adam, the father of the human race. Luke is proclaiming through his Genealogy that Jesus Christ, Who is the Divine Word, took on our human nature, born of the Virgin Mary. He became one like us in all things but sin. We will reflect upon the beauty of this great mystery of the Word made flesh, in the Blessed Sacrament. For more info or to register, please contact 262-567-6900 or email rrc@redemptoristretreat.org.
